Mysuru, Aug. 27 (RK,MTY&BCT)- The City Police seems to have cracked the recent Vidyaranyapuram jewellery store dacoity case.

The Pune Police have arrested three persons in Pune and Rajasthan and the information has been passed on by the Maharashtra Police to the Karnataka Director General of Police, who in turn has informed the Mysuru City Police Commissioner. The gang is notorious all over North India for committing robberies. The four-member gang had robbed Amruth Gold and Silver Palace in Vidyaranyapuram on the evening of Aug. 23 and had shot dead 24-year-old bystander Chandru of Dadadahalli while escaping. During the loot, they had downed the shutters, assaulted shop owner Dharmendra and also held him hostage with a gun so that he could not move.

Following the arrest, the Mysuru Police have initiated the process of producing a body warrant to bring them to Mysuru from Pune. They are 'suspects' as their photos, videos and fingerprints have been matched. Once the legal process is complete, they will be brought to Mysuru in a day or two, Police sources said.

Notorious Tau gang: According to the data provided by the Pune Police and the Mysuru City Police sources, the accused are Satendra Pal Singh alias Sunar, Sanjay alias Raju from Bulandshahr in Uttar Pradesh.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The 2011 Census revealed 47 crore children in India between 0-18 years. Despite being such a large demographic, children haven't factored in Government of India's (GoI) vaccination targets. The current drive aiming to fully vaccinate all adults by December is increasingly looking tough. Adults have been prioritised for health and economic reasons. But when vaccines for children pass muster, their holistic well-being must also be prioritised. That would be justice; they have already paid a high price. Increase production so that both children and adults can be simultaneously inoculated.

Covaxin, with 7 crore doses administered to adults till date, has enrolled 2-18-year-olds for trials and ZyCoV-D, solely adolescents. Vaccine regulator CDSCO must authorise these shots only if the safety and immunogenicity data is unimpeachable. GoI must plan for a quick rollout and should immediately start reserving Covaxin doses now in production for school-going children. Delaying vaccination to next year because of shortages would be cruel, after approvals come by September. It's time for Covaxin to raise its game and ensure the delivery of 40 crore doses until December cited in GoI's affidavit to the Supreme Court.

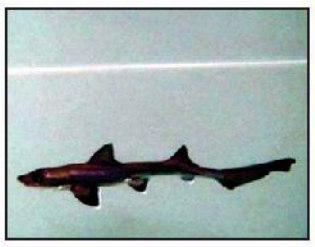
Shark born in female-only tank baffles scientists



Sardinia: In what scientists are calling a world-first for the species, a"miracle" baby shark was born in a tank full of female smooth-hound sharks in Sardinia, Italy.

Parthenogenesis, or "virgin births," have previously been observed in nature, from various species of plants, insects, reptiles, birds and fish, but never in smooth-hound sharks, which explains why the staff at Acquario Cala Gonone were shocked to see the young baby among all the females.

The asexual birth of the miracle baby shark is yet to be officially confirmed, but the team at the Italian aquarium says no other explanation makes sense.

Since the embryo receives genetic material from only one individual, parthenogenesis is a process that essentially forms clones of the parent, with identical DNA. The tests of Ispera, as the new baby shark was named, are expected to confirm that she is a clone of her mother.

The Danish protest pig

Copenhagen: Husum Red Pied is a rare domestic pig breed popularly known as the 'Danish Protest Pig' to imitate the Danish country flag at a time when an actual flag could not be raised.

The story of the Danish Protest Pig can be traced back to the mid 19th century when Denmark and Prussia went to war over control of the southern Jutland Peninsula. The two countries couldn't decide their border, so they eventually went to war. In 1848, Denmark won the war, but only a decade later the Second Schleswig War erupted and this time Prussia emerged victorious. In the years that followed, Prussian authorities launched a campaign against anything Danish, especially the Danish flag. So they devised a cunning plan to bypass the ban...

Sir,

Anything above 40 kmph on our Highways is now considered over-speeding. We can see interceptors hiding on the Highways and the Ring Road to catch motorists going over 40 kmph.

There was a time when maximum speed limit was 60 kmph which was reasonable. Now it has been reduced to 40 kmph. So we have to travel at 40 kmph on our Ring Roads and our Highways or else pay Rs. 1,000 fine for each time we "over-speed."

I don't understand why the speed limit has been reduced to 40 kmph. Wasn't the traffic fine target not being met when it was at 60 kmph? It is 2021, all our vehicles are modern and have superior handling and braking. It is possible to have excellent control of vehicle even when travelling at 60 kmph. Keeping the speed limit at 40 kmph, that too on Highways is ridiculous. It kills the whole purpose of building Highways. How can we do long-distance journeys at this speed?

And is this speed limit only for the general public? Because I have seen State transport buses and Government vehicles flying on the Highways where there is a 40 kmph speed limit.

Over-speeding is dangerous, I admit. But keeping the speed limit to 40 kmph is way too low. It looks like this has been done only as a way to increase fine collection than keep a steady pace of traffic. I request the authorities concerned to bring back the old speed limits which were reasonable.

Gang rape at Chamundi Foothill

State Women's Commission Chief lodges complaint

Commission to pay the victim's medical bill; offers legal help

Mysuru/Bengaluru, Aug. 27 (UNI)- Karnataka State Women's Commission Chairperson Prameela Naidu yesterday lodged a complaint with the Mysuru Police demanding harsh punishment for those who gang raped a college student on Tuesday evening at the foot of Chamundi Hill.

Responding to media persons, she said the Commission has taken suo moto note of the incident and lodged a complaint with the Police. After lodging the complaint, she rushed to the crime spot and collected information from the Police for submitting a detailed report to the Home Ministry.

Speaking to reporters at the crime site, Prameela said the Police are confident of arresting the accused soon. However, she could not meet the rape victim as she is in a state of shock.

"The Police have gathered 34 clues and the investigators are working on those leads, with the Police on the job of tracing the accused. The rapists, who were in an inebriated condition, assaulted the youth accompanying the girl before the sexual assault.

Prameela Naidu, Chairperson, Karnataka State Commission for Women, accompanied by DCP Geetha Prasanna, inspected the crime spot at the foot of Chamundi Hill yesterday.

Such heinous incidents shouldn't occur in any part of the State," she added.

Prameela said the Women's Commission would pay all her medical bills and provide counselling to her. "I have spoken to the District Legal Cell to provide them necessary legal help also," she added.

"Doctors also advised me not to meet her. Both the girl and her friend are admitted at the hospital and the boy has suffered a wound on his forehead," said Prameela Naidu.

National Commission for Women takes note

Rekha Sharma

The National Commission for Women (NCW) took cognisance of the gang rape case and has written to Karnataka Police to make sure that all the accused are identified and immediately arrested.

"The NCW has come across a media post wherein it has been alleged that a young woman along with her boyfriend was attacked by a group of men and later the woman was gang raped at Chamundi Hill. As per the reports, only FIR has been registered and no accused has been arrested in the matter yet," read the release by the NCW.

NCW Chairperson Rekha Sharma has written to the Director-General of Police, Karnataka, to make sure that all the accused are identified and immediately arrested and charged under relevant provisions of the law.

The Chairperson has also taken up the matter with the Chairperson of the Karnataka State Commission for Women. The Commission has sought initiating the process to provide the adequate compensation to the survivor as per the rules of the Victim Compensation Scheme enumerated under Section 357A of Criminal Procedure Code, 1972.

The NCW has also asked that the survivor must be provided with medical and counselling support. The action taken in the matter must be communicated to the Commission at the earliest, Rekha Sharma noted.

Firearm Training Simulator opens at KPA

The state-of-the-art Simulator is aimed at training recruits and recreates small arms firing ranges indoors. It can be adapted to a number of firearms and imparts basic training, hones firing skills, improves weapon handling skills and tests the skill level of trainees in complex and war-like scenarios, said officers.

"The facility provides a real-time environment of terrain, combat situation and the weapons including rifle, pistol, revolver and machine guns. The Simulator has the provision for engagement of multi-profile targets including static and moving in different modes. The digital technology gives a real feeling of firing through air pressure and also target practice for accurate firing inclusive of sound vibrations," said a Police officer.

These facilities were explained to the Home Minister who also inspected the KPA library, digital learning classrooms, interactive communication system between the trainers and the trainees. The Minister even tried his hand in firing a weapon through the Simulator. KPA Director Vipul Kumar, Deputy Director Dr. Suman D. Pennekar, Police Training School Principal Dharanidevi Malagatti and others were present.

Visit to Chamundi Hill and on crime cases

The Home Minister arrived in the city late last night at Jaladarshini Guest House on Hunsur Road and was received by MP Pratap Simha, Deputy Commissioner Dr. Bagadi Gautham and others. Today morning Jnanendra visited Chamundi Hill and prayed to the Goddess.

"It is a tradition for anyone to visit the Chamundeshwari Temple after they come to Mysuru and I have done the same. I have prayed for the well-being of the people and also to give strength to the Police to detect heinous crimes," he told reporters.

Before entering the KPA and also at other couple of places, the Home Minister was quizzed by reporters on his comments on the gang rape victim and how Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai disapproved of his remarks. "The CM has powers to do that and I have already withdrawn my statements on the victim as it was given under immense pressure from the Opposition and media," he said.

On the progress of investigation into the gang rape case, the Home Minister said that the Police have collected enough evidence to nail the criminals. "It is not possible to reveal details now as it will hamper investigation and the rapists will be arrested soon," he said, ducking further questions.

When media persons wanted to know whether he will visit the crime scene, Araga Jnanendra said, "I haven't decided yet. Will let you know later." In his interaction with media it was evident that he was avoiding controversy following intense criticism over his remarks made yesterday as the gang rape incident gained national attention.

Chamundi foothill security back on radar

Demand to constitute Special Branch to patrol Ring Road, outskirts

Mysuru, Aug. 27 (MK&BCT)- The gang rape incident at the foot of Chamundi Hill has brought the focus back on the safety of devotees and also pairs who visit certain secluded places to spend time amidst greenery. Gangs are known to target these visitors. At first, the victims are threatened and in extreme cases, sexual assaults are committed.

The wooded areas filled with rocks and shrub growth at Lalithadripura and surrounding areas including Lalitha Mahal is a haven for drunkards and many anti-social elements that bring stocks of liquor to these places and indulge in drinking. In the gang rape case too, the Police have found some liquor bottles in the vicinity.

They are now examining CCTV footage from bars and restaurants along the Outer Ring Road to establish the identities of the purchasers and match them with the clues that they have got in the crime scene.

Every morning and evening, hundreds of walkers set out of their homes for a walk amidst greenery and apart from them, there is a steady stream of devotees who visit Sri Chamundeshwari Temple atop the Chamundi Hill and also the Tripurasundari Jwalamukhi Temple at Uthanahalli.

While there are four entry points to the Chamundi Hill that are sometimes managed by the Police during festival season, there is no sort of security at the foothill. Earlier, the jurisdictional Police used to conduct regular hourly night beats to book these criminals and drunkards. But now, the patrol vehicles rarely visit the areas after 7 pm.

The wooded areas filled with rocks and shrub growth at Lalithadripura.

In the past there were instances of the Police patrol teams questioning motorists returning from these areas at night. But now the system has been given a go-by with most of the senior officers closeted inside their offices and junior officers busy in VIP security as hordes of leaders visit the Hill Temple.

Local villagers say that while during the daytime there is some activity in the wooded areas as cowherds frequent the place with their bovines and sheep, at night it is deserted, giving a golden opportunity for drunkards and gamblers. Neither there are any street lights nor there are any checking.

"Once somebody enters the area it is difficult to trace them as lights are rarely used. Even if the Police are informed, they come here in their jeeps for a single round and leave. Once the patrolling team leaves, it is business as usual for anti-social elements," said villagers.

Special Branch

Meanwhile, MLA L. Nagendra has said that a demand to constitute a Special Branch to monitor Outer Ring Road, Lalithadripura, Lalitha Mahal, Chamundi Hill surroundings and foothills has been placed before the Government.

"The gang rape on a student has sullied the image of the Cultural Capital of Karnataka and since Chamundi Hill, its foot and the Outer Ring Road are critical areas, we have asked the Government to constitute a Special Branch that will coordinate with jurisdictional Police and also take over the security," he said.

'Bengalureans comparing Mysuru to Taliban'

Mysuru, Aug. 27 (PMV&AK) - "The incidents of robbery, murder and gang rape has disturbed Mysureans," said journalist and filmmaker Indrajit Lankesh.

Addressing a press meet at a private hotel in city this morning, Indrajit said, "Crime has increased in the Heritage City. People of Mysuru are disturbed over such incidents and I request the Chief Minister to take immediate action by arresting the accused. After Nirbhaya case in Delhi, the Supreme Court (SC) has formed strict rules in rape cases. The accused in Mysuru gang rape case should be punished according to the new rules framed by the SC. The State Government should give compensation to the family members of the victim. Delhi gang rape case was named as Nirbhaya, I would like to call the Mysuru gang rape case as 'MALINI'. The name MALINI defines the one who protects her own dignity."

Bengalureans are comparing Mysuru to Taliban

"I oppose the statement given by Home Minister Araga Jnanendra. He cannot question the freedom of a woman, as every woman has the right to go out. After this incident, Bengalureans are comparing Mysuru to Taliban. I would like to call it a complete failure of District Incharge Minister S.T. Somashekar in protecting the law and order situation.

Indrajit Lankesh

More than 400 rape cases have taken place in the State in two years, where most of the victims belonged to oppressed community. A new scheme was launched after the Nirbhaya case, where more compensation will be given to rape victims and their family members, under which, every State Governments has Rs. 200 crore in its treasury. Yet no proper compensation amount is reaching the victim and their families," Indrajit added.

The whole system is weak in Mysuru: "I had told a month before that the law and order system is weak in Mysuru, which has been proved by the gang-rape incident. We cannot blame the Police every time for the failure of law and order system, as politicians play big role in this. The city has always been attractive for foreign tourists, but incidents like rape and murders will keep away tourists from visiting the city. When Basavaraj Bommai was the Home Minister, he had assured to eradicate drugs and rowdyism from the city, but the crime rate is increasing in Mysuru", he added.

Mysuru, Aug. 27 (RKB&DM)- Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Devegowda (GTD) inaugurated the office of the newly formed Hootagalli CMC (City Municipal Council) on High Tension Double Road in Hootagalli KHB Colony along Hunsur road on the outskirts of the city this morning.

The inauguration of the office comes nine months after the Government passed a Gazette notification on Nov. 26, 2020, making the Hootagalli CMC official. The CMC has been formed by merging Hinkal, Koorgalli and Belawadi Gram Panchayats, which have a combined population of nearly 57,000 according to 2011 census.

Speaking after inaugurating the office, GTD said that presently, the office will function from the rented building on High Tension Double Road. Pointing out that a DPR has been prepared on the construction of the CMC building at CA site No. 21 in Hootagalli KHB Colony, the MLA said that the report has been sent to the Government for approval and the works on the construction of the new building will commence soon after Government nod.

Noting that the Government has also been appealed to provide adequate number of staff for the CMC office, he said now that the CMC has been formed, it is the responsibility of the new civic body to provide basic amenities and other necessary infrastructure to all areas coming under it.

Maintaining that he pushed for the inauguration of the new office as people of Belawadi, Koorgalli, Hinkal Gram Panchayats (GP) and surrounding areas were facing a lot of inconvenience as the three GPs ceased to function following the formation of Hootagalli CMC, GTD said that the residents of the CMC can make Government remittances and transactions at Karnataka Grameena Bank located closeby.

Highlighting the services that are available in the CMC office, the MLA said that the residents and beneficiaries of various Government schemes can avail services such as benefits under 24.10 percent fund scheme for SC/STs, 7.25 percent fund for Backward Classes development, 5 percent fund for welfare of the differently abled, getting Birth and Death Certificates, Transfer of Property Rights, Building Licence for new structures, Licence for alteration of buildings, fresh water connections, new Under-Ground Drainage connections, Trade Licence, Advertising Licence, facilities under various Poverty Alleviation Schemes, Housing Schemes etc.

Stating that a HDFC Back counter has been set up in a portion of the CMC office, he said that citizens can pay their taxes and utility bills at this counter.

Asking the residents of the CMC and eligible beneficiaries of various Government Schemes to avail the services that are available at the CMC office, he appealed the citizens to maintain cleanliness and hygiene in their surroundings and also shun the use of plastics as far as possible.

MCDCC Bank President G.D. Harish Gowda, former ZP member Chandrika Suresh, Hootagalli CMC Commissioner Narasimhamurthy, AEE Harshini, officials and a host of other local political leaders were present.

Three arrested in Pune

The name and identity of another arrested has not been released though his photo has been provided.

Accused Sanjay used to be a Constable in the Uttar Pradesh Police but was terminated from his service after getting convicted for murder in 2007.

The trio were part of the notorious 'Tau gang' and were arrested by a joint team of Haridwar Police and Special Task Force (STF) on July 12. After the arrest, the Police recovered valuables worth Rs. 80 lakh from them. They were also arrested earlier in connection with a Rs. 2 crore robbery in Haridwar.

Wanted in eight States

Mysuru Police Officers said that the accused managed to get bail in both the cases and four among the gang members are suspected to have come to Mysuru for dacoity. The gang is wanted in eight States including Delhi, Punjab, Uttar Pradesh and Uttarakhand. The robbers usually use an ambulance to escape from the crime scenes.

The gang has been active for around 25 years and was originally headed by Inderpal Chaudhary, who was arrested a few years ago and is currently lodged in Bulandshahr jail. After his arrest, his nephew Satish Chaudhary took over the reins and divided responsibilities like collecting information, 'recruiting' new members, planning escape routes etc.

Professional approach

The gang was named after the new kingpin's uncle or 'tau'. Sources said the members called each other 'tau'. According to the Police, the gang worked like a corporate company and had a professional approach to crime. Police sources said that the gang usually keeps a number of escape routes ready and is known to use ambulances to get away.

In the Vidyaranyapuram case too, the gang managed to vanish soon after committing the crime and even before the Police could enforce nakabandi at all entry and exit points. Mysuru Police have now gathered that the gang had planned to loot the shop on the Varamahalakshmi festival day on Aug. 20.

The visuals of the gang members doing a recce of the shop for the festival loot has been captured in one of the CCTV cameras near the shop. However, it is not clear why the gang did not loot the shop on Aug. 20.

City Police sources said that the Pune Police have matched the fingerprints of the gang and the same has also been confirmed by the Central Finger Print Bureau that maintains a database of fingerprints of criminals, both national and international.

Meanwhile, reports said that the Police are also looking at the angle of personal enmity between two shop owners for the reason behind the dacoity.

Gang rape: Protests continue in city

Mysuru, Aug. 27 (RKB&DM)- Three days after a girl student was gang raped by a group at Lalithadripura in the foot of Chamundi Hill, protests continued in city for the third day today.

The protestors contended that the incident has shaken the city and the authorities should not show any leniency in punishing them.

Earlier, the committee members took out a bike rally from Dasara Exhibition Grounds to the DC Office, passing through Chamaraja Double Road and Ramaswamy Circle.

Committee office-bearers N. Chandrashekar, Mahadevaswamy, C.B. Paramesh, S. Balaji and others took part.

50 years on... the show goes on

Sangam Theatre completes half-a-century

Completing 50 years is a rare achievement for a theatre at a time when it is facing dual problems — COVID-19 pandemic and onslaught of multiplexes. In the last few years, many single screen cinema halls have shut due to lack of patronage and high rate of taxes. Now, Shanthala, Lakshmi and Shree Nagaraja theatres have become history while some other theatres are on the verge of closure.

With the release of new movies on OTT and multiplexes, people have stopped going to theatres. Now, people watch latest movies on their mobile phones and laptops free of cost.

While the rich and affluent go to multiplexes to watch movies in reclining seats, popping popcorn and sipping cool drinks, people who cannot afford to pay that much of ticket amount prefer to visit single screen theatre. But this has stopped in the last 18 months due to outbreak of pandemic. Owners of multiplexes are capable of sustaining loss but not these owners of single screen theatres. Already, a few theatres have been converted into shopping malls with the business no longer fetching money.

In these times of difficulties, a Mysuru theatre has completed fifty years of its existence offering a bountiful of entertainment to the citizens through visual treat. Sangam, one of the oldest theatres of Mysuru, celebrated its golden jubilee on Aug. 4, 2021.

It was Ramananda Narayanrao Mandre (Sandalwood actress Sharmiela Mandre's grandfather), popular as R.N. Mandre, who built the theatre on a leased land way back in 1971. In those days, it was the most sought-after theatre for exhibitors and distributors due to its maintenance. It is located diagonally opposite to Dodda Gadiyara (Silver Jubilee Clock Tower) near the century-old C.V. Rangacharlu Memorial Hall, popularly known as Town Hall, in the heart of the city.

According to history, before the theatre was built on this piece of land, there existed a building called 'Yalandur House,' said to belong to Dewan Poornaiah, which was subsequently converted into a hotel. Later, a theatre came up in that land as Kannada filmdom flourished, thanks to several hit movies that fetched State and National Awards. Since then, Mandre ran this cinema hall till 2006 when the original land owner took over its management. The huge space in front of the theatre and a spacious parking space attracted cinema-lovers. This theatre also has a ramp to reach the balcony that makes it disabled-friendly. Total seating capacity of this theatre is 923.

Rajiv B. Urs, one of the present owners of Sangam Theatre, speaking to Star of Mysore, said: "We are maintaining our theatre despite all odds. 15 members are working in our theatre since many years. They have to be paid whether the theatre runs or remains closed. Besides, we have to pay monthly electricity charges of Rs. 40,000. Apart from this, we have to pay various kinds of taxes even though there is no single paise of income as the theatre is shut."

"Our cinema hall stopped screening movies in March 2020 when COVID-induced lockdown was announced by the Government. It remained closed for several months. Always cinema halls are the first ones to be closed during lockdowns and the last ones to be reopened. Subsequently, when the lockdown was eased, the Government permitted theatres to open but with only 50 percent capacity. It was not a viable solution as expenses were same no matter we run it to full house or half. However, we restarted screening of movies in March-April 2021 for 40 days and again had to stop as we did not have any new movies to screen," he rued.

"Nobody knows for how many more months or years the pandemic will continue with news reports of third wave likely in the coming months. Under these circumstances, the cinema halls might be asked to shut again. What is the guarantee that people will come back to theatres even if the pandemic subsides?," he asked.

He hoped that theatres may attract more audience if new good movies are released. "Till then we have to keep our fingers crossed," said Rajiv Urs.

The other two owners of Sangam Theatre, which is yet to start screening of movies, are Sujay B. Urs and Sanjay B. Urs.

Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel centenary celebrations on Nov.21, says Minister

Mysuru, Aug.27 (YDS&DM)- The centenary celebrations of the city's iconic Lalitha Mahal Palace Hotel will be held on Nov.21, 2021 and it will be a simple affair, said District Minister S.T. Somashekar.

Addressing a press meet after holding a preliminary meeting at Lalitha Mahal Hotel here yesterday, Somashekar said that the Hotel will complete 100 years on Nov.21 and as such the centenary celebrations will take place on that date.

Pointing out that the Chief Minister and the Tourism Minister will be invited for the inauguration, he said that sound and light show, flower exhibition and a week-long cultural programme will be part of the centenary celebrations.

Maintaining that local artistes will be given preference in the cultural programmes, the Minister said that the Lalitha Mahal Palace was built by the erstwhile Mysore Maharaja Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar in 1921.

A few years ago, the Central Government handed over the building to the State Government which in turn entrusted it to the Tourism Department. Now the Hotel is being managed by State-run Jungle Lodges and Resorts (JLR), he said and added that the celebrations will be different from that of Dasara.

Highlighting the other plans, Somashekar said that it is proposed to install a statue of Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar in front of the Hotel and to organise an expo featuring the contributions of the erstwhile Mysore rulers.

Mayor Sunanda Palanetra, MLC Sandesh Nagaraj, JLR Chairman M. Appanna, DC Dr. Bagadi Gautham, MCC Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy and other officials were present at the meeting.

On Mayoral poll: Referring to Mayoral poll, the Minister said BJP has secured the post due to the break up of JD(S)-Congress alliance. Replying to a query on reports that former CM Siddharamaiah has asked Congress Corporators to quit the Deputy Mayor Office and all other MCC Standing Committee posts, Somashekar said that he does not know what exactly Siddharamaiah has said and as such he would not comment on the issue.

City sculptor Yogiraj conferred 'Jakanachari Award'

Mysuru City Sculptor B.S. Yogiraj being conferred with Jakanachari Award by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai during the Annual Awards (2019-20) ceremony organised by the Kannada and Culture Department, Government of Karnataka, at Ravindra Kalakshetra in Bengaluru on Aug. 18. The Award carries a purse of Rs. 5 lakh and a citation. The award was instituted in 1995 in the name of revered sculptor 'Amarashilpi Jakanachari' to encourage the traditional occupation that has been inherited by generation after generations.

Minister's CAVA visit was only to see art, figurines

Mysuru, Aug. 27 (MTY&BCT)- Students of Chamarajendra Government College of Visual Arts (CAVA), Mysuru, were upbeat on Wednesday as Minister for Kannada and Culture V. Sunil Kumar was to visit the Siddarthanagar campus. They hoped to air their grievances and get immediate solutions.

However, the Minster limited himself to seeing the art and artefacts exhibited at CAVA halls and preferred not to interact with the students. It was Sunil Kumar's first visit to Mysuru after he assumed charge as Minister for Energy and Kannada and Culture. CAVA falls under his administration.

CAVA, one of the most prestigious art institutes in India, has not had a full-time Dean since the last five years. After Basavaraj Mushavalagi retired, the Government has not appointed a full-time Dean. There are a host of academic and infrastructure issues in the institution. Students had prepared their set of grievances to inform the Minister and had also readied with who will address the Minister.

Their hopes of meeting the Minister in-person were dashed as the Minister only took time to admire the artistic figurines that were on display at many sections of the College. Apart from the issues of Dean, the institute lacks professional full-time teachers and there is a huge backlog with the existing teachers managing the workload.

Art requires individual attention. Here, with no Dean and lecturers, students have to fend for themselves without learning much. Several temporary lecturers, however, met the Minister while he was on rounds and urged him to make their services permanent to which the Minister just nodded.

Students said former Kannada and Culture Minister Aravind Limbavali too had visited CAVA six months back and had assured of solving all problems. "Now this Minister has not even listened to us," students said. "Actually, people who have innate knowledge about art have to occupy the place of the Dean. Unfortunately, the Minister preferred not to listen to us," said Niranjan, Secretary of Kuncha Kaavya Students Association.

Academic Coordinator of CAVA Vijaya Rao, however, said that the issues of the College have been brought to the notice of the Minister and soon he will take steps to address them. Internationally renowned sculptor and Shilpakala Academy Chairman Veeranna Manappa Arkasali and others were present.

Puri Jagannath Temple to open in Mysuru on Aug. 30

Mysuru, Aug. 27 (RKB & BCT)- The newly built Puri Jagannath Temple by Puri Jagannath Cultural and Welfare Trust, Mysuru, at Vidyaranyapuram, off H.D. Kote Road, opposite Friendly Motors Service Centre, will be inaugurated on Aug. 30 on the auspicious occasion of Sri Krishna Janmashtami.

Addressing a press conference at Pathrakarthara Bhavan in the city recently, Ghanashyam Pradhan, Managing Trustee of the Trust said that on that day at 7.30 am, the 'Prana Pratishtapana' will be held followed by a series of rituals.

Krishnaraja MLA S.A. Ramdas, Nanjangud MLA B. Harshavardhan, Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) Chairman H.V. Rajeev, Mysuru City Corporation Commissioner G. Lakshmikantha Reddy and Corporators Bhuvaneshwari and Shanthamma will be the chief guests, he added.

The Lord Jagannath Temple at Puri is one of the oldest and famous temples in the world but many people cannot go there to have a darshan. There are more than 5,000 Odias staying in Mysuru working in various sectors and at the same time, apart from Odiyas, there are many believers of the Lord. This temple has been built for the benefit of all the devotees at an estimated cost of Rs. 25 lakh, he added.

Trust Convener G.M. Gopalakrishna, Trustees Srikanth Das and Chinmay Das were present at the press meet.

WORD OF THE DAY

Emigrate

Pronunciation: EM-uh-grayt.
Meaning: To leave a country or region in order to live somewhere else.
Origin: Migrate, emigrate, and immigrate are all about being on the move. All those terms come from the Latin word migrare, which means "to move from one place to another." Emigrate and immigrate sound alike, and it is true that both involve leaving one location and entering another. The subtle difference between them lies in point of view: emigrate stresses leaving the original place, while immigrate focuses on entering the new one. You won't have trouble keeping them straight if you remember that the prefix e- means "away," as in eject, and the prefix im- or in- means "into," as in inject.
Example: "Originally from Jamaica, Martin emigrated to the UK in 2002 and enrolled in an IT course at a college in East London." — The Caribbean Today, July 2021.

THE ODD WORD

Eclogue

Pastoral or rustic poem.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Eat my dust

Meaning: People use the expression eat my dust when they feel confident about outperforming their opponent at something.
Origin: The origin of the phrase "eat my dust" likely comes from racing and the fact that when people run, they might kick up dirt, or dust, into the air as they go (kind of like in the picture above). The type of terrain matters for this; for example, people running on a concrete road probably aren't going to kick up any noticeable dirt into the air. On the other hand, people running on a dirt road might. The imagery for this expression typically involves a person running in a race. The leading racer is sprinting and dust is being kicked up behind him. The slower racers who are lagging behind end up passing through this dust and breathe it in. In effect, they are "eating" the leading racer's dust. So... how old is this phrase? The earliest one could find it in print is from a newspaper called The World's News, January 1909. There's a short story from in this newspaper titled "John—Cowboy," and a couple characters from the story exchange these words: "'Can you keep up?'
'Keep up? You-all will eat my dust,' shrilled the boy, in a fever of excitement, and boastful."
